CKCA Steering Committee

The Columbia Kootenay Cultural Alliance (CKCA) partners with the Columbia Basin Trust, which provides funding to the CKCA to deliver arts, culture and heritage funding to residents of the Canadian Columbia Basin. The CKCA, which is an umbrella organization of arts, culture and heritage sector representatives, carries out programs that each year result in the creation of more than one hundred cultural projects.

The CKCA has an elected steering committee, which works to determine cultural funding needs throughout the region, and recommends arts, culture and heritage funding programs to the Columbia Basin Trust. Once these programs are approved, the Columbia Basin Trust relies on the expertise of the CKCA Steering Committee to determine which projects will receive funding.

To date, the Columbia Basin Trust and the Columbia Kootenay Cultural Alliance have delivered over two million dollars to residents of the Columbia Basin through the cultural sector.

Columbia Basin Trust

The Columbia Basin Trust (CBT) supports efforts by the people of the Basin to create a legacy of social, economic and environmental well-being and to achieve greater self-sufficiency for present and future generations. Working closely with people who live in the Basin, CBT assists communities in addressing their needs by:

- Focusing on local priorities and issues;*
- Bringing people together around key issues;*
- Providing useful, credible, accessible information;*
- Encouraging collaboration and partnerships;*
- Seeking ongoing input from Basin residents;*
- Providing resources and funding.*

CBT provides funding and grants through a variety of programs from Arts, Culture and Heritage, to Business Advocacy to Environment to Scholarships, to Community Development. In addition, CBT supports regional initiatives such as Climate Change Adaptation, Water Stewardship, Literacy, Youth and Land Conservation.

For more information about the work CBT is doing around the Basin contact CBT at 1-800-505-8998 or www.cbt.org.
